animal tracks word magic the speech of stones the power of letters and the taste of the wind all figure prominently in this intellectual tour de force that returns us to our senses and to the sensuous terrain that sustains us this is a major work of ecological philosophy that startles the senses out of habitual ways of perception in this book the author draws on sources as diverse as the philosophy of merleau ponty balinese shamanism apache storytelling and his own experience as an accomplished sleight of hand magician to reveal the subtle dependence of human cognition on the natural environment he explores the character of perception and excavates the sensual foundations of language which even at its most abstract echoes the calls and cries of the earth

this book reconstructs the concept of the individual in marx as the key to a fresh interpretation of marxian philosophy marx moved from an examination of the contingency and indeterminacy of individual consciousness in his early years to a critique of the atomistic individual and materialised social relations in his later years his thought proposes that real individuals are the basis for an understanding of human society that promotes the emancipation of humankind marx s philosophy has often been misunderstood as lacking a concept of the individual in china this misunderstanding not only relates to cultural and linguistic particularities the word individual is seldom used in chinese but also relates to a misleading view of socialism and communism this book helps remedy this misunderstanding and draws important comparisons and contrasts between marx s concept of the individual with that of liberalism and between western and eastern marxism hegel gave lecture series on aesthetics or the philosophy of art in various university terms but never published a book of his own on this topic his student h g hotho compiled auditors transcripts from these separate lecture series and produced from them the three volumes on aesthetics in the standard edition of hegel s collected works annemarie gethmann siefert has now published one of these transcripts the hotho transcript of the 1823 lecture series and accompanied it with a very extensive introductory essay treating many issues pertinent to a proper understanding of hegel s views on art she persuasively argues that the evidence shows hegel never finalized his views on the philosophy of art but modified them in significant ways from one lecture series to the next in addition she makes the case that hotho s compilation not only concealed this circumstance by the harmony he created out of diverse source materials but also imposed some of his own views on aesthetics views that differ from hegel s and that the ongoing interpretation of the aesthetics part of hegel s philosophy has unfortunately taken to be hegel s own this translation of the german volume which contains the first publication of the hotho transcript and gethmann siefert s essay makes these important materials accessible to the english reader materials that should put the english speaking world s future understanding and interpretation of hegel s philosophy of art on a sounder footing this view encouraged theorists to consider artistic geniuses the high priests of humanity creators of works that reveal the invisible essence of the world book jacket looks at some of the reasons for studying the bible and presents practical guidelines for reading and understanding the scriptures the book rethinks the central categories of marx s work beyond any philosophy of history providing a critical analysis of his political and theoretical development from his early writings to the elaboration of the critique of political economy and his final anthropological studies on pre individualistic and communist forms the study aims to integrate the paradigm of the spatialisation of time with that of the temporalisation of space showing how capital places diverse temporalities into hierarchies that incessantly produce and reproduce new forms of class struggle an adequate historiographical paradigm for globalised capitalism has to consider the plurality of temporal layers that are combined and come into conflict in the violently unifying historical dimension of modernity
