for more than a half century the guide to the evaluation of education experiences in the armed services has been the standard reference work for recognizing learning acquired in military life since 1942 and has worked cooperatively with the US Department of Defense, the armed services and the US Coast Guard in helping hundreds of thousands of individuals earn academic credit for learning achieved while serving their country.

For more than 25 years this guide has been the trusted source of information on thousands of educational courses offered by business, labor unions, schools, training suppliers, professional and voluntary associations and government agencies. These courses provide academic credit to students for learning acquired at such organizations as AT&T, Citigroup, Delta Air Lines, General Motors, University of Netg and Walt Disney World Resort. Each entry in the comprehensive national guide provides the following information: course title, location of all sites where the course is offered, length in hours, days or weeks, period during which the credit recommendation applies, purpose for which the credit was designed, learning outcomes, teaching methods, materials and major subject areas covered, college credit recommendations offered in four categories by level of degrees and expressed in semester hours and subject areas in which credit is applicable. The introductory section includes ACE transcript service information.
