a journey s wealth by tom lynch jr a journey s wealth is about the beautiful place we can live when our imaginations have been our homes throughout our lives do you believe in god nine out of ten americans unhesitatingly answer yes but for douglas porpora the real questions begin where pollsters leave off what he asks does religious belief actually mean in our lives does it shape our identities and our actions or despite our professions of faith are we morally adrift landscapes of the soul paints a disturbing picture of american spiritual life in his search for answers to his questions porpora interviewed clerks and executives jews evangelical christians buddhists taoists and even followers of bhagwan sri rajneesh he asked them about god and about what they saw as their own place in the universe what he found was a widespread inability to articulate any grand meaning of life we lack heroes to inspire us we lack a sense of calling of transcendent purpose in our existence many of us seem incapable of caring deeply about the suffering of others our society is permeated with moral indifference yes we are a believing people but god is often a distant abstraction and rarely an emotional presence in our lives only such an emotional connection porpora argues can be the basis of a genuine moral vision our emotional estrangement from god and the sacred keeps us from caring about social justice keeps us from wanting to change the world keeps us enclosed in our own private worlds landscapes of the soul is a passionate call to broaden our spiritual and moral horizons to raise our eyes to the greater reality that unites us all
