in this innovative analysis of german elementary education katharine kennedy uses textbooks curricula and pedagogical texts to trace continuities and changes in the lessons taught in the elementary schools of wilhelmine weimar and nazi germany children in all three periods were exposed to recurring texts that reinforced attachment to god region and fatherland however they also encountered evolving symbols of the nation and shifting ideas about the identity of germany and the german people by blending lessons on hitler race and heredity with traditional narratives nazi education conveyed its ideology under the cloak of virtue patriotism and normality it provides a compelling example of how a dictatorship manipulates religion and tradition to legitimize a brutal lawless and racist regime space of twenty four hours in vienna in may 1933 marked by a so called turks deliverance celebration türkenbefreiungsfeier serves as an empirical laboratory this austrofascist rally is mapped from multiple perspectives and woven into media historical networks spanning from the seventeenth century up to the present day this book and its companion second volume make up a unique history of nazism from 1919 to 1945
