the development of the mythological school of european biblical criticism according to hindu mythology brahma has a lifespan of 100 years that may appear way short for a god of brahma s standing he is the creator of our solar system but brahma and hindu gods do not follow our traditional 24 hour clock they represent time in cosmic units of yugas and kalpas if you don t understand any of these terms that s ok a kalpa for instance is defined as a day of brahma and translates to 4 32 billion human years in fact brahma has a lifespan of 311 trillion years we explain these colossal timescales as we introduce brahma in this book you will learn that brahma initially was the supreme deity of hinduism but he could not hang on to his position for long a judgmental lapse is said to have caused his downfall with brahma s descent vishnu rose to power today in the hindu pantheon vishnu is a prominent god and has a following of more than 700 million devotees who are occasionally identified by the u shared marks on their foreheads with a focus on vishnu and brahma we continue our journey beyond the vedic era we begin by examining a popular creation myth in which brahma emerges from the navel of a sleeping vishnu and starts crafting the world further on we explore the churning of the milky ocean a crucial event in hindu mythology and one of the rare occasions when gods and demons collaborated instead of fighting to search for the nectar of immortality many precious things and surprises came out this quest including lakshmi the goddess of wealth and consort of vishnu we also get to know a critical insight into our ancestry according to hinduism we are all related and descendants of manu the father of human race while this book focuses on brahma and vishnu there will be occasional detours when we pause to look at art and architecture in particular we ll look at angkor wat the largest hindu temple in the world guess what the fact that angkor wat is located outside india has dented hindu pride from time immemorial we ll also peek at ancient paintings from a mythological perspective especially the unique genre of miniature paintings called ragamala that combines art music and poetry a remarkable shift in worship took place during this period bhakti became a major form of worship and pervaded hindu society forever if you are unfamiliar with bhakti then nothing exemplifies bhakti devotion more than the dancing and chanting hare krishnas taken from individually written works over the course of four years the fury and the fall is a representation of the destruction and overcoming of the socially conditioned self in order to begin creating a self defined individual hector nevarko writes in a visceral sardonic voice tinged with turmoil and black humour delivered in a mixture of irreverent off beat staccato balanced by almost whispered confessions of regret frustration and desire
