this study explores the reception history of the lord s prayer in the ghanaian context after presenting the current state of research in the lord s prayer from an exegetical perspective this book discusses a wide field of hermeneutical approaches such as inculturation biblical hermeneutics mother tongue biblical hermeneutics african feminist biblical hermeneutics liberation biblical hermeneutics and post colonial biblical hermeneutics taking the discussions of these approaches together it was realised that the general hermeneutical setting in ghana and africa as whole is reader centred i e the readers play an active role in the hermeneutical process and the results of the hermeneutical process are aimed at the readers contexts and the transformation of those contexts in sub saharan africa over the last two decades there has been an explosion of christianity this book sets out to identify its particular character focusing on a particular place greater accra the capital of ghana paul gifford examines a wide range of accra s new churches giving priority to mega churches every dimension discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the bible conventions finances clientele is analysed gifford argues that this christianity is not otherworldly its emphasis is on success achievement wealth here and now yet within this general orientation there is diversity at one end of the spectrum are churches that building on the traditional religious imagination see demonic forces everywhere blocking personal success in the churches the key factor is the special man of god who is understood to have the anointing to conquer these forces to reverse the curse that is holding the believer back at the other end is a strain of this new christianity that discounts spiritual forces and sees victory resulting from the believer s own education and skills and from transforming culture the book also joins the debate over the role of this christianity in modernizing economic and political structures it sets the scene by describing ghana s political and economic situation in the decades when these churches were proliferating and outlines the current debate on the reasons for africa s economic plight it is argued that although focusing on success and wealth can provide motivation in circumstances where it is so easy to despair the pervasive emphasis on miracles militates against any natural fostering of a new work ethic as for their political role some churches are easily co opted others challenge the government but for spiritual reasons that provide little incentive to grapple with issues of governance by contrast gifford finds one important church encouraging change of the entire political culture no other book has set forth the complex nature of africa s new christianity with such clarity or offered such a searching analysis of its power to tackle africa s predicament

this volume comprehensively examines all texts dealing with social justice in the prophecy of amos it also provides evidence of contemporary systemic social injustice the volume then reflects on how biblical social justice is relevant to the contemporary quest for social justice this volume demonstrates that irrespective of the hermeneutical challenges the principles gleaned from the pages of the hebrew bible can dialogue effectively with modern issues and deduce living principles that could enable us to deal with issues that confront us today it is thus a framework by which biblical social justice illuminates the contemporary quest for social justice prosperity theology the belief that financial and physical well being is god s will for his followers has become prevalent in modern day christianity for christians looking to better understand how it is affecting the life and growth of the church around the world this book is an accessible and practical resource evaluating the prosperity theology movement from a biblical and evangelical perspective the authors encourage readers to think critically about the ways in which the theology we follow can lead toward or away from the kingdom of god prosperity theology and the gospel is in four parts the first part turns our attention to god s word and looks at what the bible says about the issue of prosperity part 2 looks at the issue from different perspectives be it historical ethical or sociological part 3 considers the impact of prosperity theology in different regions of the world through several case studies part 4 proposes how we might respond to some of the challenges we have identified and what could be a way forward for us all each chapter is followed by ideas for further thought and discussion contributors include femi adeleye christopher wright joel tejedo valdir and maicon steuernagel and many others gifford knows his subject totally has vast and wide ranging sympathy for his subjects though without being uncritical and explores these themes with admirable intelligence this book is simply the best thing out there philip jenkins gifford s is an uncompromising hard nosed study n o one can again look at the subject without at least a respectful nod in his direction lamin sanneh in ghana s new christianity paul gifford considers the explosion of christianity in sub saharan africa by focusing on one place greater accra ghana gifford examines every dimension of these new churches and mega churches including their discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the bible finances and clientele ghana s new christianity sets religious devotion into ghana s political and economic situation and focuses on how fervent belief in success and wealth in the here and now can provide motivation to change in circumstances where it is so easy to despair no other book brings forth the complex nature of africa s new christianity with such clarity or offers such a searching analysis of its power to tackle africa s predicament
