this book is about the outmoded educational model in which american children all across the united states continue to be educated with and why this educational model is crippling the middle class and slowly putting america behind other emerging economies many of the ideas are not novel nor does this book claim them to be it is a portrayal however of how long many of these ideas have been on the table have proven to have been effective but have been killed in legislatures in many of the states and at the federal level although it is highly critical of the current education model and the many factions that breathe life into its perpetual existence this book offers insight into why it is so imperative that citizens begin to become education consumers rather than just bystanders doing what theyre told finally it offers some practical advice on how to organize how to align incentives for citizens to become more engaged in this area and policy initiatives in which citizens should begin to strongly back at their local legislatures and at the federal level in this companion volume to the word in the wind sermons for the lectionary year a advent through eastertide bruce taylor provides a collection of theologically rich sacramentally sensitive and biblically centered sermons for the sundays and feast days for pentecost and the remainder of the liturgical year commonly referred to as ordinary time the compilation includes a sampling of story sermons and in an appendix to the lectionary based homilies a sermon that was delivered at the invitation of the presbyterian church usa as part of the preparation for the denomination s general assembly in 2008 challenging the church to remember and remain faithful to its prophetic heritage using the full range of old testament epistle and gospel readings commended by the common lectionary revised this collection encourages preachers to use the lectionary as an opportunity to explore homiletically the whole range of scriptural themes for their congregations and offers all readers thoughtful reflections on living faithfully in regular engagement with word and sacrament
