now in 4 color format with more illustrations than ever before the seventh edition of mechanics of materials continues its tradition as one of the leading texts on the market with its hallmark clarity and accuracy this text develops student understanding along with analytical and problem solving skills the main topics include analysis and design of structural members subjected to tension compression torsion bending and more the book includes more material than can be taught in a single course giving instructors the opportunity to select the topics they wish to cover while leaving any remaining material as a valuable student reference important notice media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version the fourth edition of this classic text carries on the gere timoshenko tradition of quality while incorporating a host of content and software based improvements revisions to the fourth edition include presentation of difficult concepts revised for clarity for example a new chapter 8 contains expanded coverage of combined loadings more than 60 of the problems updated and improved with real life systems loadings and dimensions more realistic content and solution steps included in worked examples new realistic 3 d rendered artwork bound in 3 5 disk contains mathcad engine 5 0 for windows a powerful easy to use computational program which includes a set of worksheets for solving equation based problems this text provides undergraduate engineering students with a systematic treatment of both the theory and applications of mechanics of materials with a strong emphasis on basic concepts and techniques throughout the text focuses on analytical understanding of the subject by the students an abundance of worked out examples depicting realistic situations encountered in engineering design are aimed to develop skills for analysis and design of components to broaden the student s capacity for adopting other forms of solving problems a few typical problems are presented in c programming language at the end of each chapter the book is primarily suitable for a one semester course for b e b tech students and diploma level students pursuing courses in civil engineering mechanical engineering and its related branches of engineering profession such as production engineering industrial engineering automobile engineering and aeronautical engineering the book can also be used to advantage by students of electrical engineering where an introductory course on mechanics of materials is prescribed key features includes numerous clear and easy to follow examples to illustrate the application of theory to practical problems provides numerous end of chapter problems for study and review gives summary at the end of each chapter to allow students to recapitulate the topics includes c programs with quite a few c graphics to encourage students to build up competencies in computer applications strength of materials is that branch of engineering concerned with the deformation and disruption of solids when forces other than changes in position or equilibrium are acting upon them the development of our understanding of the strength of materials has enabled engineers to establish the forces which can safely be imposed on structure or components or to choose materials appropriate to the necessary dimensions of structures and components which have to withstand given loads without suffering effects deleterious to their proper functioning this excellent historical survey of the strength of materials with many references to the theories of elasticity and structures is based on an extensive series of lectures delivered by the author at stanford university palo alto california timoshenko explores the early roots of the discipline from the great monuments and pyramids of ancient egypt through the temples roads and fortifications of ancient greece and rome the author fixes the formal beginning of the modern science of the strength of materials with the publications of galileo s book two sciences and traces the rise and development as well as industrial and commercial applications of the fledgling science from the seventeenth century through the twentieth century timoshenko fleshes out the bare bones of mathematical theory with lucid demonstrations of important equations and brief biographies of highly influential mathematicians including euler lagrange navier thomas young saint venant franz neumann maxwell kelvin rayleigh klein prandtl and many others these theories equations and biographies are further enhanced by clear discussions of the development of engineering and engineering education in italy france germany england and elsewhere 245 figures develop a thorough understanding of the mechanics of materials an area essential for success in mechanical civil and structural engineering with the analytical approach and problem solving emphasis found in goodno gere s leading mechanics of materials enhanced 9th edition this book focuses on the analysis and design of structural members subjected to tension compression torsion and bending this enhanced edition guides you through a proven four step problem solving approach for systematically analyzing dissecting and solving structure design problems and evaluating solutions memorable examples helpful photographs and detailed diagrams and explanations demonstrate reactive and internal forces as well as resulting deformations you gain the important foundation you need to pursue further study as you practice your skills and prepare for the fe exam important notice media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version this book balances introduction to the basic concepts of the mechanical behavior of composite materials and laminated composite structures it covers topics from micromechanics and macromechanics to lamination theory and plate bending buckling and vibration clarifying the physical significance of composite materials in addition to the materials covered in the first edition this book includes more theory experiment comparisons and updated information on the design of composite materials mechanics of materials brief edition by gere and goodno presents thorough and in depth coverage of the essential topics required for an introductory course in mechanics of materials this user friendly text gives complete discussions with an emphasis on need to know material with a minimization of nice to know content topics considered beyond the scope of a first course in the subject matter have been eliminated to better tailor the text to the introductory course continuing the tradition of hallmark clarity and accuracy found in all 7 full editions of mechanics of materials this text develops student understanding along with analytical and problem solving skills the main topics include analysis and design of structural members subjected to tension compression torsion bending and more important notice media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version
