maria montessori s philosophy shows how montessori s commitment to follow the child can be understood as a philosophical method for answering the great philosophical questions that confront human beings patrick frierson discusses historical influences on montessori s philosophical views focusing on showing how her commitment to children led her to profound insights about a wide range of philosophical questions from foundational metaphysics to applied ethics and politics her metaphysics grounded in the concept of life as she observes it developing in the child helps to address fundamental questions about the nature of the universe and the emergence of consciousness and value within it her pragmatic empiricist epistemology provides the framework for a sophisticated account of various intellectual virtues conducive to excellent cognitive engagement with reality her moral philosophy weaves together a broadly nietzschean emphasis on self perfection with respect for all human beings and a strong interest in social solidarity in her philosophy of religion she follows children as they guide her to recognize a sense for the divine and the importance of sensorily informed religious practice her politics informed by lifelong feminism and concern for peace shows how the education of the child is the key to cosmopolitan solidarity and lasting peace her philosophy of technology while recognizing the dangers of technological development also sees in children the human potential and even vocation to develop technology for the betterment of the world the author explores education from the essential principles of tawhid oneness of god humanity knowledge fitrah concept of human nature and the role of humans as vicegerents of god on earth responsibility and stewardship the current education system dates back a hundred years or more and is in desperate need of a reboot in developing the industrialized society the education system itself became like a factory the end product being pupils who merely regurgitate facts and themselves end up as cogs in the machine that is the wider industrial complex the legacy of this is a soulless functional educational system that fails to develop pupils to meet the present and future needs of individuals and their expectations this failure inevitably impacts on society and humanity at large society has long since moved beyond the industrial revolution and into an age of global connectedness where the sum of human knowledge is freely available via the internet it is an age where people are generally more well informed and on a variety of issues an effective holistic educational philosophy is required one that gives full spiritual meaning to all that a child learns it should equip children with spiritual awareness morals and values social responsibility and accountability self discipline and self determination self confidence and empowerment ambition and aspiration tempered with thoughtfulness and a sense of gratitude
