it is the lord when they got out on land they saw a charcoal fire in place with fish laid out on it and bread jesus said to them bring some of the fish that you have just caught so simon peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore full of large fish 153 of them and although there were so many the net was not torn jesus said to them come and have breakfast now none of the disciples dared ask him who are you they knew it was the lord john 21 9 12 esv our father in heaven has put eternity into the hearts of all human beings we are made to think deeply and hard work is our reward there are certain things that prosaic language cannot express and certain places where poetry acts as a zealous guide in our eternal longing and search 153 fish is intended to point to the one for whom the entire universe awaits with a groaning too deep for words the lord and savior jesus christ 153 fish poetry to refresh remind and revive an enrichment to your devotional time to him be glory forever frank prinzi is a sinner saved by the merciful grace of god through the redemption found only in christ jesus he is a high school english teacher in western new york where he resides with his lovely wife linda and daughter isabel ann frank also teaches the adult sunday school class at church prayers from god ups the ante on how to pray out loud at church a methodology is described whereby you can pray prayers that not only glorify god and edify the church but change lives and change the church the book includes two hundred prayers that have been prayed out loud as part of the life of one evangelical church by one layman in worship services prayer meetings etc over a period of twenty years what makes these prayers unique is the author s justification for calling them prayers from god these prayers display a passion and a concern for the lost you ll find nowhere else and give a glimpse into the life of evangelical church life you ll not find prayers that cause controversy and make people uncomfortable in most books of prayers but you will here you can t just read these prayers you pray these prayers as you read them the prayers of the people is the place where liturgy is most likely to lose energy of course that should not be the case it is a great privilege to offer our prayers to god as a congregation but the book of common prayer provides a limited number of forms and although it also provides guidelines for composition of original prayers many parishes have prayed just a couple of the forms over and over again for 35 years williamson began to compose these new prayers for his parish posting them on a blog as they were used each sunday he discovered in the process that the congregational urge to move beyond the prayer book s six forms is a common one these new prayers bring freshness to corporate prayer carrying the lectionary based themes of the hymns lessons and sermon into the service creating a fresh and focused worship experience lectionary based prayers in a call and response format written in language that is fresh and well crafted
