edited by a small group of students including alain badiou jacques alain miller and françois regnault at the ecole normale supérieure in paris the cahiers pour l analyse appeared in ten volumes between 1966 to 1969 the journal was conceived as a contribution to a philosophy based on the primacy of concepts and the rigor of logic and formalization as opposed to lived experience or the interpretation of meaning the cahiers published landmark texts by the most influential thinkers of the day including derrida foucault irigaray and lacan and were soon recognized as one of the most significant and innovative philosophical projects of the time the two volumes of concept and form offer the first systematic presentation and assessment of the cahiers legacy in any language the second volume is a collection of newly commissioned essays on the journal and substantial interviews with members of the editorial board
