from new york times bestselling author andrew solomon comes a stunning poignant and affecting young adult edition of his award winning masterpiece far from the tree which explores the impact of extreme differences between parents and children the old adage says that the apple doesn't fall far from the tree meaning that children usually resemble their parents but what happens when the apples fall somewhere else sometimes a couple of orchards away sometimes on the other side of the world in this young adult edition andrew solomon profiles how families accommodate children who have a variety of differences families of people who are deaf who are dwarfs who have down syndrome who have autism who have schizophrenia who have multiple severe disabilities who are prodigies who commit crimes and more elegantly reported by a spectacularly original and compassionate thinker far from the tree explores how people who love each other must struggle to accept each other a theme in every family's life the new york times calls the adult edition a wise and beautiful volume that will shake up your preconceptions and leave you in a better place

thomas hardy's fourth novel far from the madding crowd is a classic portrayal of 19th century rural english life it is the story of bathsheba everdene a vain young woman who comes to live with her aunt and uncle there she is courted by three gentlemen gabriel oak a would-be shepherd william boldwood a farmer and sergeant francis troy a tragic tale of love far from the madding crowd is one of the greatest novels ever written rich with emotion and pathos the past was yesterday the future tomorrow never the next day it's the 1870s and bathsheba everdene is a woman ahead of her time within the confines of rural english society her independence and impulsive nature quickly land her at the heart of a web of love and lies three very different men hope to claim her but bathsheba is fickle and as she forges her own path through the politics of love and marriage disaster follows in her wake far from the madding crowd is a tale of loyalty obsession and tragedy from a storytelling master soon to be a film starring carey mulligan michael sheen and tom sturridge
