Michael Clanchy, FBA, Emeritus Professor of Medieval History at the Institute of Historical Research, University of London, is lucid and perceptive, striking an effective balance between primary and secondary authorities. Huscroft's book is both a significant statement in its own right and an ideal introduction to other work in the field. Professor David Carpenter, King's College London, writes: 'Ruling England is about the exercise of political power in England at a time of formative change in the country's history, framed at one end by the Norman Conquest and at another by Magna Carta. It describes what happened, why, and with what consequences in politics, government, law, and the church. It analyses developments from a royal perspective and focuses on the
