seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject english language and literature studies literature grade 1 0 dresden technical university institut anglistik course hs the cultural study of masculinity language english abstract before writing this paper i didn t know what the term butch meant i tried to find out through texts and on the internet what it meant and i soon found out that there were many different definitions i lost myself in blogs of people who defined themselves as butch and the conclusion was that the definition has to do both with femininity and masculinity after reading leslie feinberg s novel stone butch blues 1993 the meaning of the term was at least a little more clear i decided to write the paper on this concept mainly driven by curiosity it was like looking into a room full of books and feeling the desire to read them all with the conviction that every book had to tell a different story i decided to call the paper the search for identity in leslie feinberg s stone butch blues because i think that jess s search goes beyond her self definition as a butch the story narrates the search for identity of an individual who has to choose between given categories at the end jess chooses to refuse a stable definition because no one fits properly i chose to follow the main character through the search annotating every stage and trying to find confirmation in the critique
