reveals the transformative spiritual work by which the soul can reach ever higher dimensions of consciousness relates the soul levels of the zohar to the various paths the soul may travel toward ultimate realization introduces a new meditative technique called the transformative moment throughout the history of the jewish esoteric tradition humankind has been understood to play a pivotal role in the perfection of the cosmos uniting the finite with the infinite in the perfection of divine personality working from an original synthesis of the major kabbalistic traditions of cosmology derived from the bible the zohar and the school of isaac luria leonora leet has erected a new framework for understanding the mechanism of the transformative spiritual work that enables the human soul to reach increasingly higher dimensions of consciousness this analysis extends the frontiers of leet s prior works on the kabbalah to provide a new illumination of human possibilities leet first considers the false temptations of worldly power and pleasure that lead to the fall of the soul and then the means of its redemption she develops a powerful meditative technique called the transformative moment whose workings are exemplified by jacob and joseph and that allow the individual to progress through all the higher levels of the soul even possibly to attain the miraculous powers of the legendary spiritual masters she further correlates the hierarchy of soul levels with ezekiel s throne vision to show the various paths the soul may travel toward self realization sex love power knowledge holiness and unification the first four paths relate to the four faced living creatures chayot of ezekiel s throne vision the bull ox lion eagle and man the final two paths correlate to the prophet and the envisioned man on the throne he recognizes to be his divine higher self the knowledge that defines the secret doctrine of the whole of the jewish mystical tradition culminating in the kabbalah

the articles collected in scholar and kabbalist the life and work of gershom scholem present diverse biographical aspects and the scholarly oeuvre of arguably the most influential jewish israeli intellectual of the 20th century immigrating to palestine in 1923 gershom scholem became one of the founders of the hebrew university in jerusalem and was the first to establish jewish mysticism as a scholarly discipline the articles collected here reflect the diversity of scholem s intellectual scope including his contribution to jewish studies as a scholar of kabbalah religion and history as a bibliophile and an expert librarian of judaica central aspects of scholem s impact on jewish historiography literature and art in israel europe and the us are presented to the reader for the first time at the dawn of the deadliest era in human history the 20th century a mysterious man appeared on the socio political scene carrying a stern warning for humanity and an unlikely solution to its suffering in his writings kabbalist yehuda ashlag described in clarity and great detail the wars and upheavals he foresaw and even more strikingly the current economic political and social crises we are facing today his deep yearning for a united humanity has driven him to unlock the book of zohar and make it and the unique force contained therein accessible to all the kabbalist is a cinematic novel that will turn on its head everything you thought you knew about kabbalah spirituality freedom of will and our perception of reality it is the first book of its kind to try to convey the inner workings and sensations of a kabbalist who reached the highest level of attainment a person who is in direct contact with the singular force governing all of reality the kabbalist carries a surprising message of unity with scientific clarity and poetic depth it transcends religion nationality mysticism and the sheer fabric of space and time to show us that the only miracle is the one taking place within when we begin to act in harmony with nature and with the entire humanity it shows us that we can all be kabbalists

none of the gnostic systems has so often been compelled under the hands of the critics to change its birthplace as the so called kabbalah no monument of oriental philosophy has called forth such conflicting hypotheses as to the time and place of its composition as the universal code of the kabbalists the zohar finally no writer of the history of philosophy has until now undertaken to translate the picturesque metaphorical language of jewish gnosis into the reasoning mode of expression of abstract thinking i shall leave out of consideration the great array of jewish and christian disciples of the kabbalistic system it is too strongly dominated by the essential mysticism that prevails in all parts of the kabbalistic system to be able to reach the necessary sobermindedness the opinion of a pico de la mirandola of a reuchlin has as much critical value as that of an ordinar oharist or of a hassid the presumptive higher illumination does not permit the intellect to come to its senses those critics who stand outside the sanctum of the kabbalah have indeed brought to light wonderful conjectures bearing on the age and the origin of the same some buddeus kleuker osiander set the kabbalah in the age of the patriarchs and let it march side by side with the mosaic teachings on the road of oral tradition as an esoteric teaching a secret doctrine the talmudic tradition ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ claims no less indeed for itself it is maintained that this too is an oral part of the divine revelation descended from mores compare maimonides introduction into the mishnah yet this tradition which bears only on the material sensual side of the law could never have paved its way to the people were it not sanctioned by descent and religious national custom others basnage brucker believed they had found the cradle of the kabbalah in egypt this opinion is as it were a continuation of the one which holds that the mosaic law and mosaic doctrine is a property pilfered from the egyptian priesthood richard simon and berger let the founders of the jewish gnosis in company with the greek creators of the doctrine of numbers and ideas be schooled by the chaldeans wachter joachim lang and wolf author of bibliotheca hebraea looked for the source of the kabbalah in pagan philosophy yet these opinions lack a definite historic foundation and have justly been rejected by the author of this work in company with another author of a french work histoire critique du gnosticisme franck defends the view that the kabbalistic science evolved from the theology of the parsees against this opinion gieseler in the review of matter's work theologic studies and criticisms year 1830 i 381 383 made some objections referred to also by baur although says gieseler we fully recognize the proven influence of parseeism upon judaism yet we would not explain it by any syncretic inclination of the latter in so far as syncretism refers to an external union of materials innerly strange to one another never indeed were the israelite people further away from mixing strange opinions with their religious belief nor of recognizing any relationship to any other religion like the persian for instance as just since the exile the influence of the persian system upon the jews consisted in that it induced them to a development of analogous seeds resting in their doctrine by representing itself to them as a complete system in some points at which the persian doctrine development unknown to them surely helped to influence as a pattern it is always the more developed doctrinal system which acts upon the less developed one even when the latter places itself to the former in the most decided contrast we first take side with massuet against buddeus by denying the pre christian origin of the kabbalistic philosophy the exegetic quibblings which developed later into the so called kabbalah symbolica are older it is true but we are obliged to doubt that the philosophic system of the kabbalists originated from such early times because neither josephus nor philo mention it because the system of philo relates to the kabbalistic system evidently as the earlier to the later and because the historical traces of the kabbalah are so very young accordingly we can not consider the kabbalah which by the way does not seem to us of such close relationship to the zoroastrian system as a source of the christian gnosis
