sailing in cold waters is challenging but hugely rewarding and when you venture into the high latitudes you find yourself in some of the world's last real wildernesses in recent years climate change has made these regions more accessible to small boats and it is now possible to venture further afield in search of adventure with practical advice stunning photography and first hand accounts of voyages from world renowned experts this book offers hard won wisdom on all aspects of sailing in cold waters preparing yourself good routines assessing risk and preparing your crew preparing your boat design heating engine steering anchors and electrics sailing in ice instrumentation charts and what to do when you get stuck safety mob polar bears glaciers and dinghy procedure communication vhf satellite and ssb weather interpreting grib files and reading ice charts anchoring and mooring types and numbers of anchors and mooring lines clothes hiking and skiwear the three layer principle cruising areas svalbard antarctica south georgia and many more whether it's tackling the north west passage aboard your own yacht or a more modest voyage heading to antarctica or keeping your boat in the water for the quieter and often more beautiful winter season this book is essential reading for all sailors preparing for enjoyable and safe sailing in cold waters

after tough assignments as a canadian diplomat abroad nicholas coghlan and his wife jenny unwind by sailing bosun bird a 27foot sailboat from cape town south africa across the south atlantic and into the stormy winter waters around tierra del fuego south america coghlan recounts earlier adventures in patagonia when taking time off from his job as a schoolteacher in buenos aires in the late 1970s he and jenny explored the region of southern argentina and chile over three successive summers this time as they negotiate the labyrinth of channels and inlets around snow covered fireland he reflects on voyages of past explorers magellan cook darwin and others sailing enthusiasts and readers of true adventures will want to add coghlan s world wise narrative to their libraries for as far back as he can remember dallas murphy has been sea struck since he began to read besotted by salt water dreams and nautical language he studied the lore surrounding a place of mythic proportions the ever alluring cape horn and after years of dreaming and sailing he finally made his voyage there in this lively thrilling blend of history geography and modern day adventure murphy shows how the myth crossed wakes with his reality cape horn is a buttressed pyramid of crumbly rock situated at the very bottom of south america 55 degrees 59 minutes south by 67 degrees 16 minutes west it s a place of forlorn and foreboding beauty one that has captured the dark imaginations of explorers and writers from francis drake to joseph conrad for centuries the small stretch of water between cape horn and the antarctic peninsula was the only gateway between the atlantic and pacific oceans and it s a place where the storms are bigger the winds stronger the seas rougher than anywhere else on earth rounding the horn is the ultimate maritime rite of passage and in murphy s hands it becomes a thrilling exuberant tour weaving together stories of his own nautical adventures with long lost tales of those who braved the cape before him from spanish missionaries to captain cook and interspersed with breathtaking descriptions of the surrounding wilderness the result is a beautifully crafted immensely enjoyable read this book provides a modern synthetic overview of what is known about the structure functioning and interactions of marine and terrestrial systems at the prince edward islands building on more than 50 years of biological geological meteorological and oceanographic research it demonstrates not only how inextricably linked marine and terrestrial systems at the islands are but also how global environmental challenges such as climate change biological invasions and over exploitation are playing out at the regional and local levels in the southern ocean in 1983 gerry clark set off from new zealand in a 10 metre wooden yacht to circumnavigate antarctica in a quest for new information about sea birds in this graphic account of the ensuing three year yoyage he describes his adventures in some of the remotest wildest spectacularly beautiful parts of the world
