in the fairy tales about father daughter incest the girl without hands thousand furs the original cinderella donkey skin and the stories of saint dymphna patron saint of incest survivors the daughters are all as you would expect them to be horrified by their father's sexual advances they do everything in their power to escape but i didn't a child can't escape and later when i could it was too late throughout her childhood and adolescence the anonymous author of the incest diary was raped by her father beneath a veneer of normal family life she grew up in and around this all encompassing secret her sexual relationship with her father lasted off and on into her twenties it formed her world and it formed her deepest fears and desires even after she broke away even as she grew into an independent and adventurous young woman she continued to seek out new versions of the violence submission and secrecy she had struggled to leave behind in this graphic and harrowing memoir the author revisits her early traumas and their aftermath not from a clinical distance but from deep within to explore the ways in which her father's abuse shaped her and still does as a matter of psychic survival she became both a sexual object and a detached observer a dutiful daughter and the protector of a dirty secret and then years later she made herself write it down with lyric concision in vignettes of almost unbearable intensity this writer tells a story that is shocking but that will ring true to many other survivors of abuse it has never been faced so directly on the page please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 i had many therapists and one of them was a beautiful woman who studied with freud i liked her until we got closer to the incest when i was in college i went to see her on thursday afternoons she wanted me to see a psychiatrist she worked with who would give me medication 2 i had sex with my father when i was twenty one i was very wet and i wanted his big hard cock deep inside me i had never felt sexier we didn't say anything and he went back to his bed 3 i told my friend katherine huntington a neighbor and family friend the truth about my father having sex with me when i was a young child she said to forget about it and get over it she had been molested when she was a child and her parents didn't do anything about it 4 i confronted my father about our incestuous relationship he told me that he was sorry for all he'd done and that he was quitting his job and traveling i didn't hear from him for months anaïs nin a myth of her own traces nin's literary craft by following the intimacy of self exploration and poetic expression attained in the details of the quotidian transfigured into fiction by digging into the mythic tropes that permeate both her literary diaries and fiction this book demonstrates that nin constructed a mythic method of her own revealing the extensive possibilities of an opulent feminine psyche clara oropeza demonstrates that the literary diary for nin is a genre that with its traces of trickster archetype among others reveals a mercurial yet particular understanding of an embodied and at times mystical experience of a writer the cogent analysis of nin's fiction alongside the posthumously published unexpurgated diaries within the backdrop of emerging psychological theories further illuminates nin's contributions as an experimental and important modernist writer whose daring and poetic voice has not been fully appreciated by extending research on diary writing and anchoring nin's literary style within modernist traditions this book contributes to the redefinition of what literary modernism was comprised who participated and how it was defined anaïs nin a myth of her own is unique in its interdisciplinary expansion of literature literary theory mythological studies and depth psychology by considering the ecocritical aspects of nin's writing this book forges a new paradigm for not only nin's work but for critical discussions of self life writing as a valid epistemological and aesthetic form this impressive work will be of great interest to academics and students of jungian and post jungian studies literary studies cultural studies mythological studies and women's studies
