a revisionist account of technology s role in the aesthetics spaces and politics of transatlantic avant gardesexplores of a range of key avant garde formations in the modernist transatlantic period from the italian futurists and english vorticists to the dada surrealist and post harlem renaissance african american experimentalistsexplores writers and artists inventions as well as their texts and involves them directly in the messy transductions of technology in culture draws on previously unknown photos manuscripts and other evidence that reveals the untold story of bob and rose brown s reading machine a cross disciplinary meta formational and transnational project that proposed to transform the everyday act of readingreading machines in the modernist transatlantic provides a new account of aesthetic and technological innovation from the machine age to the information age drawing on a wealth of archival discoveries it argues that modernist avant gardes used technology not only as a means of analysing culture but as a way of feeding back into it as well as uncovering a new invention by mina loy the untold story of bob brown s reading machine and the radical technicities of african american experimentalists including gwendolyn bennett and ralph ellison the book places avant gardes at the centre of innovation across a variety of fields from dazzle camouflage to microfilm and from rail networks to broadcast systems white explores how vanguardists harnessed socio technics to provoke social change crisis and the us avant garde examines the politics of poetry through the lens of crisis a timely commentary on the role poetic culture might play in political struggle going forward into our own various contemporary crises the decades of modern american drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions social changes culture media technology industry and political events while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide ranging and thorough survey of theatres companies dramatists new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day the work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in depth analysis and re evaluation by a team of experts together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy a final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material the major playwrights and their plays to receive in depth coverage in this volume include edward albee the american dream 1960 who s afraid of virginia woolf 1962 a delicate balance 1966 and tiny alice 1964 amiri baraka dutchman 1964 the slave 1964 and slaveship 1967 adrienne kennedy funnyhouse of a negro 1964 cities in bezique the owl answers and a beast s story 1969 and a rat s mass 1967 jean claude van itallie american hurrah 1966 the serpent 1968 and war 1963 composition and hip hop may seem unrelated but the connection isn't hard to make hip hop and rap rely on a complex of narrative practices that have clear ties to some of the best american essay writing a hip hop reader brings together work about this cultural phenomenon and provides selections that represent a variety of styles and interests an enlightening examination of the relationship between poetry and the information technologies increasingly used to read and write it many poets and their readers believe poetry helps us escape straightforward logical ways of thinking but what happens when poems confront the extraordinarily rational information technologies that are everywhere in the academy not to mention everyday life examining a broad array of electronics including the radio telephone tape recorder cold war era computers and modern day web browsers seth perlow considers how these technologies transform poems that we don't normally consider digital from fetishistic attachments to digital images of emily dickinson's manuscripts to jackson mac low's appropriation of a huge book of random numbers originally used to design thermonuclear weapons these investigations take perlow through a revealingly eclectic array of work offering both exciting new voices and reevaluations of poets we thought we knew with close readings of gertrude stein frank o'hara amiri baraka and many others the poem electric constructs a distinctive lineage of experimental writers from the 1860s to today ultimately perlow mounts an important investigation into how electronic media allows us to distinguish poetic thought from rationalism posing a necessary challenge to the privilege of information in the digital humanities the poem electric develops new ways of reading poetry alongside and against the electronic equipment that is now ubiquitous in our world
