this book offers an academic dialogue between news values construction and readers evaluative response in weibo news package from the interpersonal perspective the study focuses on the under researched field of news reception i e how the media reader relationship can be influenced by readers feedback by combing multimodal discourse analysis and corpus methods this book aims to address the following three research questions regarding the text reader relationship in weibo news package 1 what are the gains and losses in the transfer of news values constructed across platforms and news media 2 how are chinese language and emoji collaborated to realize attitudinal meanings and advance readers positions in news comments 3 how does readers response overlap or mismatch with particular news value in a story across news text reader relations reader reader relations and extra text reader relations the book has social theoretical and pedagogical implications for the changing landscape of chinese news discourse and audience studies socially the findings of news and comments analysis show that news value decisions can be negotiated due to readers active engagement via the social media commenting function theoretically a responsive model of evaluative readings has been built for a better understanding of social media multimodal comments through the lens of reading positions and emoji text interactions the book is of interest to researchers in media and communication studies but can also be used as a reference book for under graduate students in social semiotics linguistics and journalism to learn how to analyze multimodal and interactive news texts on social media by triangulation of theories and methodologies the language themes and imagery of the bible have been rewritten into texts across time in the revelation of john the hebrew bible echoes and is reinvented just as in james hogg s the private memoirs and confessions of a justified sinner 1824 many explicit and implicit readings and interpretations of the bible are offered in texts reading texts these readings of the bible and the ways in which revelation and hogg s confessions have themselves been read are considered from the two postmodern perspectives of marginalization and deconstruction by reading the two seemingly unrelated texts side by side from these perspectives traditional readings of them both are disturbed and challenged literature does have an aspect that drags the readers habitually burying them in its pages and blindly attaching them to itself blind devotion stems from the factors that are effective in determining the readers faith theories of literature similarly might bring about the generation of blind adherence and dogmatic approaches this book explores the existence of dogma in literature and some cult texts and writers and how dogmas in literature are conveyed to various audiences as a mission by some literary readers experts and academics generally dogma is a word related mostly to religion in this frame mathew arnold s dogma in religion and literature is of great importance as far as religion is concerned however there are dogmas in every field literature being no exception virginia woolf for instance wrote stupendous works that turned out to be well known and in 1928 she delivered a lecture at cambridge university where women were once not allowed that formed the basis for the celebrated a room of one s own 1929 roland barthes 1967 la mort de l auteur the death of the author essay might be another text that some of its literary readers have developed a dogmatic commitment to in addition to revealing how dogma finds its place in literature this book also discusses how literary writers and readers often unwittingly embrace literary missionary focusing on the dogmatic elements of literature and the dogmatized literary theory and criticism through cult works of various authors the book offers a striking and interesting contribution to literary theory and criticism and literature readings criminology the essentials third edition by anthony walsh and cody jorgensen introduces students to major theoretical perspectives and criminology topics in a concise easy to read format this straightforward overview of the major subject areas in criminology still thoroughly covers the most up to date advances in theory and research in the new full color third edition special features have been added to engage the reader in thinking critically about concepts in criminology
