bank street college of education professor salvatore vascellaro is a leading advocate of taking children and teachers into a wider world as the key to improving our struggling schools combining practical and theoretical guidance out of the classroom and into the world visits a rich variety of classrooms transformed by innovative field trip curricula showing how students hearts and minds are opened as they discover how a suspension bridge works what connects them to the people and places of their neighborhood and as they come to understand the ecosystem of a river by following it to its source vascellaro shows equally that what teachers can offer children is fueled by their own engagement with the world and he offers stunning examples of teachers awakened by their direct experiences with the social issues plaguing american society from the flood torn areas of new orleans to the mining areas of west virginia based on the core principles of progressive pedagogy and the wisdom gained from vascellaro s experience as a teacher school administrator and teacher educator out of the classroom and into the world is a direct retort to test scores and standards as adequate measures of teaching and learning an inspiring call and major new resource for anyone interested in reinvigorating america s classrooms a drive straight across the bluegrass state takes nearly eight hours but that would bypass all the worthwhile distractions between paw paw in pike county and the kentucky bend of the mississippi river in fulton county treasures like abraham lincoln s boyhood home that rests inside a greek style temple or the jefferson davis monument rising from a field in fairview from rip roaring barn dances in rabbit hash to the silent reverence of the monks at the abbey of gethsemani the commonwealth is chock full of timeless landmarks join native kentuckians cameron m ludwick and blair thomas hess as they explore all the amazing and irreplaceable things that make the state one of a kind arent road trips delicious the exploration the exhilaration the personal discovery and the transformation that can take place is mind blowing there is so much to learn by our individual journeys our outer world is a reflection of our inner world we spend a great deal of time decorating our outer world so that it looks a certain way however if what is within truly determines our point of attraction and what is showing up in our experience it only makes sense to dedicate time to looking closely at how our thoughts patterns and behaviors have been creating our outer world road trip to joy is the perfect itinerary for a delicious inner transformation within these pages you can identify and investigate the limiting beliefs that you have been carrying around since childhood you can learn to forgive those that you have held hostage thereby freeing yourself you can learn that you are a deliberate creator in your own life and the steps to take in order to attract the abundance that you desire finally you can learn that the most important place to start this journey is by learning to love and accept yourself exactly as you are thank you for embarking on this spiritual road trip with me
