theo logic is the third and crowning part of the great trilogy of the masterwork of theologian hans urs von balthasar following his first two parts the glory of the lord and theo drama this is the third volume of theo logic theo logic is a variation of theology it being about not so much what man says about god but what god speaks about himself balthasar does not address the truth about god until he first reflects on the beauty of god the glory of the lord then he follows with his reflections on the great drama of our salvation and the goodness and mercy of the god who saves us theo drama now in this work he is ready to reflect on the truth that god reveals about himself which is not something abstract or theoretical but rather the concrete and mysterious richness of god s being as a personal and loving god in three carefully researched volumes this ground breaking study examines the gift of tongues through 2 000 years of church history starting in the present and working back in time these volumes consider 1 the modern redefinition of tongues as a private prayer language 2 the church s perennial understanding of tongues as ordinary human languages and 3 the corinthian tongues which in light of jewish liturgical tradition turn out to have been a foreign liturgical language hebrew or aramaic requiring bilingual interpreters in the first volume the authors establish that modern glossolalia far from being a supernatural gift enjoyed by certain believers since the time of pentecost and undergoing a resurgence in modern times has no precedent in church life prior to the nineteenth century they discuss why german theologians responding to the irvingite revival coined the term glossolalia in the 1830s why pentecostals between 1906 8 quietly began redefining tongues to mean a heavenly language unintelligible to human beings but pleasing to god instead of foreign languages useful for evangelism why protestant cessationists believed miraculous tongues had ceased and why interpolated idioms like unknown tongues in protestant bibles were aimed originally at rome's use of latin this volume brings iward's reflections on justification to bear on questions of the intersection of church and society iward critiques the typical lutheran understanding of the two kingdoms and charts a new way forward for understanding luther's theology as well as the way it addresses christian life within society most importantly iward discusses church and society which have so often been closed to one another and how they have been and continue to be opened up to each other by the kingdom of god
