w e vine s greatest contribution to the church of god was his expository dictionary of new testament words w e vine has put all english speaking bible students in his debt the english reader with little or no knowledge of greek has of course concordances and lexicons these provide a skeleton vine clothes it with the flesh and sinews of living exposition and in so doing makes available for the ordinary reader the expert knowledge contained in the more advanced works in a preface to the dictionary w e vine wrote in any work in which we engage as servants of christ his word ever applies when ye shall have done all those things that are commanded you say we are unprofitable servants we have done that which was our duty to do this reference makes it possible for the students with substantial limited or no background in greek or hebrew to study the meaning of biblical words in the original languages through the extensive use of strong s numbering system and other references included in vine s indexes the student will be able to bridge vine s entries with those of the standard technical lexicons used by bible scholars worldwide
