the late middle english weye of paradys and its french source la voie de paradis use the theme of the allegorical journey to paradise essentially they are popular guides to confession adaptations for the layman of more specialized works in latin such as raymond of pennafort's summa de poenitentia this edition presents critical texts of both the weye of paradys and la voie de paradis and analyzes the relations of the english text with its immediate french and distant latin sources this work makes the english and french texts available in print for the first time and places them in the wider field of popular penitential literature elina gertsman's multifaceted study introduces readers to the imagery and texts of the dance of death an extraordinary subject that first emerged in western european art and literature in the late medieval era conceived from the start as an inherently public image simultaneously intensely personal and widely accessible the medieval dance of death proclaimed the inevitability of death and declared the futility of human ambition gertsman inquires into the theological socio historic literary and artistic contexts of the dance of death exploring it as a site of interaction between text image and beholder pulling together a wide variety of sources and drawing attention to those images that have slipped through the cracks of the art historical canon gertsman examines the visual textual aural pastoral and performative discourses that informed the creation and reception of the dance of death and proposes different modes of viewing for several paintings each of which invited the beholder to participate in an active kinesthetic experience in recent years secular life and lifestyles in late antiquity and the middle ages have been illuminated through renewed attention to the economic and social history of households while scholarship on women has produced studies of the lives and the devotional reading of laywomen and women religious this volume is a collection that unites study of the household church's roles in women's history to the impact of women's householding on the history of the church book jacket these papers are centered on the crown of aragon in the later middle ages its achievements the more remarkable given the very evident problems with which it was beset and especially on its role in the mediterranean hence the emphasis on majorca its leading intellectual figure ramon lull 1232-1316 and his influence and related to these the article on thomas aquinas other studies deal with the relations of christians and jews in majorca down to the expulsion from spain in these papers professor hillgarth seeks to investigate the transmission of learning and how what is transmitted may be put to use in a new context and also to question a number of current assumptions as to the nature of spanish history
