over the years the brilliant and often voluminous scholarly writings of bl john henry newman 1801 1890 have drawn into the church thousands more converts after him in this more modest work his everyday meditations we encounter not newman the intellectual but newman the simple christian on his knees face to face with god confident that the church teaches us rightly but knowing as well that each of us must walk closely with god hearing his voice not only through the church but in the depths of our own hearts newman here shows us how to look to jesus and declare i need you to teach me day by day according to each day s opportunities and needs teach me to sit at your feet and to hear your word give me that true wisdom which seeks your will by prayer and meditation give me the discernment to know your voice from the voice of strangers to rest upon it and to seek it in the first place this was newman s greatest desire it awakened in him ceaseless prayer countless good works a profound love of the sacraments and the habit of daily meditation which strengthened his will deepened his understanding and enkindled in him an ever greater love of god for those qualities pope francis will canonize newman on october 13 2019 the catechism of the catholic church says that ongoing growth in sanctity is an uninterrupted task for the whole church if in recent times yours has been interrupted or merely slowed down let it begin anew with this modest book to help you discern god s voice daily rest in it and respond to it according to each day s opportunities and needs we have here gathered fifty of newman s most moving christian meditations each guaranteed to enkindle in your soul the very same kind of love they enkindled in his as they nurtured newman s daily acts of conversion and finally made him worthy of the title saint so will they call you to daily acts of conversion and finally lead you as they led newman to bow down in awe before the depths of god s love

i suppose that it is profitable rather than bold for me to endeavor to teach the art of meditation it is as heavenly a business as any that belongs to either men or christians and it is such a heavenly business as does unspeakably benefit the soul for it is by meditation that we ransack our deep and false hearts find out our secret enemies come to grips with them expel them and arm ourselves against their re entrance by meditation we make use of all good means fit ourselves for all good duties by meditation we see our weaknesses obtain redress prevent temptations cheer up our loneliness temper our occasions of delight get more light unto our knowledge add more heat to our affections put more life into our devotions it is only by meditation that we are able to be strangers upon the earth as we are commanded to be and by this we are brought to a right estimation of all earthly things finally into a sweet enjoyment of invisible comforts it is by meditation that we see our saviour as stephen did we talk with god as moyses did we are ravished into paradise with blessed paul seeing that heaven that we shall be so loath to leave which things we cannot utter meditation alone is the remedy for security and worldliness it is the pastime of saints the ladder to heaven in short it is the best way to improve christianity learn it if you can neglect it if you so desire but he who does so shall never find joy neither in god nor in himself and though some of old have appropriated this duty to themselves confining it within their cells professing nothing but contemplation claiming their immunity from those cares which accompany an active life might have the best leisure for meditation yet i deem it an envious wrong to conceal meditation from many for its benefit may be universal there is no man who is so taken up with action that he does not at some time have a free mind and no reasonable mind is so simple as not to be able to better itself by secret thoughts those who have but little stock need best to know the rules of thrift surely divine meditation is nothing else but a bending of the mind upon some spiritual object through different forms of discourse until our thoughts come to an issue and this must either be unpremeditated occasioned by outward occurrences offered to the mind or else it must be deliberate wrought out of our own heart and if it is deliberate then it is either in matter of knowledge for finding out some hidden truth or overcoming some heresy by profound traversing of reason or it is in matter of affection joseph hall july 1 1574 september 8 1656 english bishop and satirist was born at bristow park near ashby de la zouch leicestershire on the 1st of july 1574 joseph hall received his early education at the local school and was sent 1589 to emmanuel college cambridge hall was chosen for two years in succession to read the public lecture on rhetoric in the schools and in 1595 became fellow of his college in 1612 lord denny afterwards earl of norwich gave him the curacy of waltham holy cross essex and in the same year he received the degree of d d later he received the prebend of millennial in the collegiate church of wolver hampton
