with schwarzkopf is gus lee s remembrance of his mentor and friend h norman schwarzkopf and his firsthand account of how schwarzkopf shaped his life in 1966 lee a junior year cadet at west point was bright athletic and popular he was also on the verge of getting kicked out nearing the bottom of his class due to his penchant for playing poker and reading recreationally instead of studying engineering he was assigned a new professor then major norman schwarzkopf schwarzkopf s deeply principled nature and fierce personality took hold of the wayward cadet and the two began meeting regularly and discussing what it meant to be a scholar a soldier and a man lee s vibrant witty narrative brings his more than forty year relationship with schwarzkopf to life readers get an inside look at west point culture they see schwarzkopf s bristling anger with his rebellious pupil as well as his tenacity intellect and moments of surprising emotional warmth and they watch as lee starts to absorb his teachings as he left west point and took on more professional and personal roles lee approached every crisis or difficult decision by channeling his mentor over the years schwarzkopf s instilled values wise counsel and warm conversations shaped lee and brought the two together in an unlikely friendship in with schwarzkopf lee passes along the lessons he learned so future generations can hear schwarzkopf s important teachings david rabe has been a major voice and crucial force in american drama since 1971 when in the midst of the vietnam war he startled the nation with the basic training of pavlo hummel the story of a native recruit s initiation into war it is by turns brutal and hilarious it won the young playwright an obie and was hailed by the new york times as rich humor irony and insight more than two decades later rabe continues to be one of our most compelling dramatists acclaimed most recently for the tony award winning hurlyburly in this the first of two volumes of the vietnam plays pavlo hummel is paired with the equally intense sticks and stones in which a blinded vietnam veteran returns home numbed by the war and is astonished by his family s inability to comprehend their country s politics and his rage in 1972 the soviet union was known as the ussr and consisted of fifteen soviet republics east germany was a satellite state of the ussr allowing easy access to carry out their main objective which was to undermine the usa s presence in west germany they wanted america to leave germany and to dissolve nato they wanted to create bad moral among the us soldiers this was russia s main attempt to undermine the united states military s presence in europe sergeant bravo was a vietnam veteran who decided to go back into the army to serve as a sergeant in germany during this time sergeant bravo quickly learned that the peacetime army he joined in germany was very different than the army he joined during his service in vietnam sergeant bravo was still under combat mode but most of the soldiers around him had never seen combat which would often cause him to get in trouble living as a mexican american during the height of the civil rights movement he had also faced the same prejudices that african americans had faced until and even after the civil rights act passed in 1964 many of the anglo soldiers also carried their prejudice over with them in germany which also caused many problems for sergeant bravo his mother had passed onto him the instinct on how to get out of trouble he was a buck sergeant which was the lowest ranking sergeant in the military who never thought he would have that much responsibility during his time in germany but he ended up helping the nato community during the cold war and made the military open their eyes toward race relations lori and trish two of a small group of the first women chosen to be cadets at west point are assigned to west germany for cadet troop leader training in the summer of 1978 maura and anne two of the first female rotc commissioned lieutenants are assigned as their sponsors trailblazers explores the struggles the women face as they spend the summer bonding and working together these intrepid women face challenges every day as they struggle to earn the respect of their male peers and learn it can be lonely when rules and duty requirements are in conflict with personal desires or needs join them as they explore europe s history and culture while supporting each other personally and professionally as they strive to be recognized as superior military professionals by their subordinates peers and superiors trailblazers the second book in the guardians of peace series continues where refined by fire left off and provides readers an unparalleled look at the integration of women into the modern army and concludes with lori and trish graduating from the prestigious united states military academy join these courageous women who blaze a new trail in history as they persevere and adapt to a male centric organization that is struggling to accept them as fellow warriors and military professionals for information visit ydoll8.wix.com/guardians-of-peace or facebook.com/guardiansofpeacemilitaryseries
