a comprehensive study guide offering in depth explanation essay and test prep for selected works by henrik ibsen the foremost playwright of the nineteenth century and the most frequently performed dramatist in the world after shakespeare titles in this study guide include Brand, Peer Gynt, A Doll's House, Ghosts, An Enemy of the People, The Wild Duck, Hedda Gabler, The Master Builder, Pillars of Society, Rosmersholm, and John Gabriel Borkman. As a writer of social plays set in nineteenth century Norway, Ibsen's use of realistic dialogue and depiction of characters' inner lives shaped the modern movement in drama. Moreover, as creator of the problem play, Ibsen's brilliant psychological analysis of character continues to influence modern writers. This Bright Notes study guide explores the context and history of Ibsen's classic works, helping students to thoroughly explore the reasons they have stood the literary test of time. Each Bright Notes study guide contains introductions to the author and the work, character summaries, plot guides, section and chapter overviews, test essay and study questions. As the Bright Notes study guide series offers an in-depth tour of more than 275 classic works of literature, exploring characters, critical commentary, historical background, plots, and themes, this set of study guides encourages readers to dig deeper in their understanding by including essay questions and answers as well as topics for further research.

In Interbellum Literature, historian Cor Hermans presents a panorama of modernist writing in the ominous period 1918-1940. The book offers in full scope an engaging synthesis of the most stimulating ideas and tendencies in the novels and plays of a wide circle of writers from France: Proust, Gide, Camus, Céline, Tzara, Aragon, Simone Weil, England and Ireland: Virginia Woolf, Orwell, Joyce, Beckett, the USA: Scott Fitzgerald, Arthur Miller, O'Neill, Hemingway, Austria-Hungary: Musil, Broch, Kafka, Zweig, Roth, and Germany: Hesse, Jünger, Böll, Thomas Mann. Caught between world wars, they nevertheless succeeded in creating some of the best literature ever. They created a philosophy as well, rejecting bourgeois mechanical society, designing escape routes from the nihilism of the times.

This book maps South Asian theatre productions that have contextualised Ibsen's plays to underscore the emergent challenges of postcolonial nation formation. The concerns addressed in this collection include politico-cultural engagements with human rights, economic and environmental issues, and globalisation, all of which have evolved through colonial times and thereafter. This book contemplates why and how these Ibsen texts were repeatedly adapted for the stage and consequently reflects upon the political intent of this appropriative journey of the foreign playwright. This book tracks the unmapped agency that South Asian theatre has acquired through aesthetic appropriation of Ibsen and thereby contributes to his global reception. This collection will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre and performance studies.

part of a three volume set which takes a cross cultural approach to the subject of nonverbal communication this volume based on the first two identifies the verbal and nonverbal personal and environmental components of narrative and dramaturgic texts and the cinema recreated in the first through the reading act according to gaze mechanism and punctuation and traces the coding decoding processes of the characters semiotic communicative itinerary between writer creator and reader recreator in our total experience of a play or film we depend on the sensory and intellectual relationships between performers audience and the environment of both in a temporal dimension starting on the way to the theater and ending as one comes out two chapters discuss the speaking face and body of the characters and the explicit and implicit at times unstageable paralanguage kinesics and quasiparalinguistic and extrasomatic and environmental sounds in the novel the theater and the cinema and the functions of personal and environmental silences another shows the functions limitations and problems of punctuation systems in the creative recreative processes and how a few new symbols and modifications would avoid some ambiguities the stylistic communicative and technical functions of nonverbal repertoires in the literary text are then identified as enriching critical analysis and offering new perspectives in translation finally literary anthropology developed by the author in the 1970s is presented as an interdisciplinary area based on synchronic and diachronic analyses of the literatures of the different cultures as a source of anthropological and ethnological data nearly 1200 quotes from 170 authors and 291 works are added to those in the first two volumes
