in this final book of the 299 days series the 43 colonels celebrates the many ordinary men and women who did extraordinary things during and after the collapse set in the chambers of the new washington legislature during a joint session of the house and senate governor ben trenton honors colonel grant matson and 42 other individuals who helped start the restoration from a personal trainer who became a spy disguised as a water boy to a homeschooling mom who protected children s minds from loyalist propaganda to a young computer hacker who used his skills to get classified information to oath keepers and a special forces operative who conducted some amazing missions the stories of these modern day patriots both heart wrenching and inspirational demonstrate how anyone can help in a revolution the worldwide resurgence of authoritarianism has sparked renewed interest in the frankfurt school theory of the authoritarian personality not as a topic of academic debate but as an urgent political factor critical theory and the authoritarian personality brings theodor adorno s critique up to date in light of new forms of authoritarian politics recent kinds of authoritarian propaganda and current findings about authoritarian personalities drawing on the work of slavoj zizek and the psychoanalysis of jacques lacan this is the first sustained application of psychoanalytic theory to the problem of the authoritarian personality since the classical work of the frankfurt school it explores a pressing problem the resurgence of the radical right and proposes new solutions grounded in the idea of an affective approach to authoritarian politics as something based on transgressive fantasies and political anxieties throughout the book illustrates its theoretical claims with reference to new kinds of authoritarian literature which today forms an important part of right wing propaganda others were not so smart and their desperation and fear grows stronger by the day grant matson reflects with pride on how he has provided for his family while guiding pierce point into a community that functions well on its own celebrating this accomplishment grant and others join to offer the community a thanksgiving dinner which is met with gratitude and exhilaration this mood is short lived however as circumstance quickly begin to unravel beginning with the disappearance of a beloved community member followed shortly by a self defensive killing by another the situation is just as bleak or worse in other parts of washington state and the country as innocent people are imprisoned and murdered women and children become commodities and what is left of the government looks even less like the once beloved united states of america as the threat of a civil war becomes imminent grant the team and the 17th irregulars at marion farm bond over their duty to protect the country and are soon a fully formed combat ready unity excited to go into combat but uncertain of what will happen to them grant dreads what he knows is coming but he understands that he has been called to sacrifice potentially his life and probably his marriage to stop the loyalists from hurting more people
