nearly five million muslims call france home the vast majority from former french colonies in north africa while france has successfully integrated waves of immigrants in the past this new influx poses a new variety of challenges much as it does in neighboring european countries alarmists view the growing role of muslims in french society as a form of reverse colonization they believe muslim political and religious networks seek to undermine european rule of law or that fundamentalists are creating a society entirely separate from the mainstream integrating islam portrays the more complex reality of integration s successes and failures in french politics and society from intermarriage rates to economic indicators the authors paint a comprehensive portrait of muslims in france using original research they devote special attention to the policies developed by successive french governments to encourage integration and discourage extremism because of the size of its muslim population and its universalistic definition of citizenship france is an especially good test case for the encounter of islam and the west despite serious and sometimes spectacular problems the authors see a french islam slowly replacing islam in france in other words the emergence of a religion and a culture that feels at home in and is largely at peace with its host society integrating islam provides readers with a comprehensive view of the state of muslim integration into french society that cannot be found anywhere else it is essential reading for students of french politics and those studying the interaction of islam and the west as well as the general public the integration of muslims into european societies is often seen as a major challenge that is yet to be confronted this book by contrast starts from the observation that on legal political and organizational levels integration has already taken place it showcases the variety of theoretical approaches that scholars have developed to conceptualize muslim life in europe and provides detailed empirical analysis of ten european countries demonstrating how muslim life unfolds between conviviality and contentious politics the contributors describe demographic developments analyze legal controversies and explore the action of government and state muslim communities and other civil society actors driving forces behind the integration of islam are discussed in detail and compared across countries this book takes a sober evidenced based look at the contemporary phenomenon of islamophobia in both old world europe and the new world of america and australia and southeast asia it includes theoretical and conceptual discussions about what islamophobia is how it manifests and how it can be addressed together with historical analysis applied research and case study chapters considering the reality that manifests as a fear of muslims anxiety about the world s second largest religion manifests as prejudice discrimination and vilification and in extreme cases violence and murder the real and perceived problems of the relationship between islam and the west contribute to the phenomenon of islamophobia this is a unique multi disciplinary work with authors approaching the topic from a number of academic disciplines and from different religious and national backgrounds providing for a greater appreciation of the complexity and diversity of islamophobia this multicultural and multi religious approach undergirds the valuable insights the volume provides this book will be of interest to all concerned with the phenomenon of islamophobia and especially researchers and students in the social sciences as well as scholars with a specific interest in muslims living as minorities in the west also those working in political science international relations sociology religious studies and other fields will all find it of value in this exhaustively researched narrative history rod kedward brings to life the great and often terrible dramas of modern france the two cataclysmic wars the algerian disaster the student and worker revolt of 1968 but also explores the special worlds of the workplace immigration minorities the role of women and the relationship of politics to place everyday life and collective memory book jacket
