in this groundbreaking work larry crabb shows readers how to build intimate healing connections with others mini communities where god s power to heal souls is quickened and released through individuals compassionate authentic relationships with others what factors contribute to active christians in ministry leaving their church and becoming exiting statistics every year dedicated christian people leave churches because of spiritual abuse the stories of people who left their home church because of a negative and hurtful experience paint a picture of a widespread occurrence which beckons consideration by church leaders and church congregants alike spiritual abuse the misuse of spiritual authority to maltreat followers in the christian church is a complex issue this book shows how people processed their grief after experiencing spiritual abuse in their local church and how they rediscovered spiritual harmony their spiritual journey shows how one may grow through this devastating experience this book offers a thoughtful look at the topic of spiritual recovery from clergy abuse through the eyes of those who have experienced it it invites church leaders to consider this very real dysfunction in the church today and aims to demonstrate a path forward to greater freedom in christ after a season of disillusionment with church leadership come to me all you who labor and are heavy laden and i will give you rest bringing a distinctly christian perspective to the subject of finding true rest in the midst of daily pressures siang yang tan diagnoses what ails us and provides thoroughly practical steps to help us respond to jesus invitation in this book siang yang tan draws from a richness of experience to write with warmth and compassion since he himself knows the difficulty of slowing down in these hyperactive times he is able to give practical guidelines to others drawn from a wealth of information found in the scriptures empirical research and psychological reports if rest is not easy for you to put into practice learn from an author who is growing at a healthy pace and willing to bring others along on the journey from the foreword by dr gary r collins siang yang tan is professor of psychology at fuller theological seminary he also serves as senior pastor of first evangelical church in glendale california he has authored or co authored eight previous books including disciplines of the holy spirit and understanding depression he is an associate editor of the journal of psychology and christianity in u s population projections 2005 2050 pew research center reported that the nation s population will rise to 438 million in 2050 from 296 million in 2005 and fully 82 of the growth during this period will be due to immigrants arriving from 2005 to 2050 and their descendants this shows that it is essential to study and understand how our mission especially in the context of the usa called the nation of immigrants will respond to this huge mobility of immigrant diaspora so far there has been emphasis on doing diaspora missiology however there is no practical implications and application in local church setting now mission is next door which implies that the ministry of the local church should be emphasized for 21st contemporary mission this book provides detailed frameworks and methods of diaspora missiology within local churches called diaspora mission church according to the bible all human beings are theologically and spiritually diaspora irrespective of ethnicity because they were banished from the garden of eden and scattered around the world in god s judgment now they walk toward the encounter with jesus christ preach the gospel as the seed of kingdom and finally move toward heaven in a day when our churches look like country clubs with slick marketing campaigns jeremy mckim urges us away from a democratized kingdom of self and toward the kingdom of god we have settled for safe and comfortable churchgoing while god beckons us toward risky and uncomfortable kingdom living with doxa mckim shows that god s invitation is greater and more terrifying than any in all of history why is ignoring god the riskiest thing you could possibly do today is god intent on crushing your ego what is so unpatriotic and humiliating about worshipping god why might a worthwhile churchgoing experience have little or nothing to do with our satisfaction why is prayer a life threatening activity allow yourself to be troubled and moved to action by these and other questions as you enter into a provocative and practical ten week journey of transformation discovery and kingdom advancement discover that god has graciously chosen to display his glory in those who would simply hear and do become the adopted son or daughter of the king whose unshakable kingdom is moving forward with or without you and answer his call to enter and participate in that kingdom pastors regularly face concrete ethical questions and they too pursue a moral life in the busyness of ministry it can be tempting to think pragmatically or derive one s ethics from the latest cultural concerns but standard approaches to ethics whether deontological utilitarian or virtue ethical all fall short of being distinctly christian ethics ought to be grounded in the gospel and in our triune god in pastoral ethics w ross hastings provides pastors with an evangelical and trinitarian framework for moral formation and ethical discernment for hastings ethics must be reclaimed as theological theology without ethics becomes gnosticism ethics without theology leads to legalism and death christian ethics participates in god s life and god s work this communion with god leads to obedience to his commands as summed up in the decalogue and over several chapters hastings provides a rich exposition for pastoral formation pastors find their identity in god and this inspires right thinking and acting with regard to authority life and death sexuality work and rest speech and desires an approach to ethics that prompts faith hope and love pastoral ethics is an essential guide for christians in all ministry contexts men rarely invest time and effort building intentional and mutually supportive friendships however long term friendships can inspire us challenge us and have the potential to transform our lives exploring the experiences of three men who have supported each other for more than 12 years the author shows how such friendships influence many areas of a person s life including family relationships physical fitness self esteem and spirituality amid gripping pain can god be trusted this story of a father s loss of his son encourages readers to depend upon the lord in their greatest suffering
