Two writers and an illustrator walk into a book and find themselves with thirty-eight questions about death asked by boys and girls between 5 and 15 years old. How and what will they answer for mortal beings of all ages comes dying to ask the result of an international project where children were invited to ask questions about death based on a series of workshops. The result: hundreds of questions from countries all over the world. Herein lies thirty-eight questions that best represented the breadth and depth of children's interest in death and related matters, complete with psychological and scientific proofing, thoughtful, tender, and surprisingly joyful. This illustrated book is an invitation to talk, think, and ask further questions about death. Some of the questions: Will I die? Where do we go when we die? Will we all become extinct one day? If someone you love dies, how long are you sad for? Why do people say "rest in peace" rather than "rest in fun"?

Utterly fascinating! Bill Bryson, an incredible journey Siddhartha Mukherjee, winner of the 2025 Association of American Publishers Prose Award for Best Book on Biology, 2025 Nautilus Book Awards Gold Winner for Science and Cosmology, a groundbreaking exploration of the science of longevity and mortality from Nobel Prize-winning molecular biologist Venki Ramakrishnan. The knowledge of death is so terrifying that we live most of our lives in denial of it. One of the most difficult moments of childhood must be when each of us first realizes that not only we but all our loved ones will die, and there is nothing we can do about it. Or at least there hasn't been today. We are living through a revolution in biology. Giant strides are being made in understanding why we age and why some species live longer than others. Could we eventually cheat disease and death and live for a very long time, possibly many times our current lifespan? Venki Ramakrishnan, recipient of the Nobel Prize in Chemistry and former president of the Royal Society, takes us on a riveting journey to the frontiers of biology, asking whether we must be mortal, covering the recent breakthroughs in scientific research. He examines the cutting edge of efforts to extend lifespan by altering our physiology but might death serve a necessary biological purpose? What are the social and ethical costs of attempting to live forever? Why we die is a narrative of uncommon insight and beauty from one of our leading public intellectuals.
