In today's secular world the Christian faith is viewed as only one aspect of what could be called religious life. Acknowledging this, Hendrikus Berkhof begins this thought-provoking study with a sketch of religion and faith in general before narrowing it down to a discussion of the specific place of Christian faith in all of reality.

There are several misconceptions about the subject matter of faith. These misconceptions have left many believers experiencing unfulfilled and an unsatisfactory walk with God. This is because they do not understand what faith really is. Some others confuse faith with hope and believe there are also those who assume that they have faith but are only operating in fear and doubt. This is why it is important to study the basic concept of faith. So in this book we will look into what faith is: the Satan kind of faith, the God kind of faith, and so much more. After reading this book you will be armed with the understanding of the true concept of faith, what faith is not, and Satan's strategy to keep your faith inactive.

Perfect for personal study and for all types of faith formation groups, the Lumen Fidei Light of Faith Study Guide is the first available resource of its kind. All Catholics will benefit from its rich commentary, reflection questions, and ideas for living more fully by the light of faith. This study guide is the essential companion to Lumen Fidei, Pope Francis's first encyclical, which was published in July of 2013. Jared Dees, author and seasoned religion teacher, leverages his expertise in education and theology to welcome Catholics into encyclicals in general and this one in particular, which Pope Francis called the work of four hands, since it completes work started by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. Dees presents summaries of each section of the encyclical, in-depth commentary, reflection questions, a glossary of key terms, and suggestions for integrating the encyclical into personal or community spiritual life. Additionally, there are appendices that address Lumen Fidei for pastors, leaders of adult faith formation, and RCIA catechists, teachers, and families.
