how is hostage space constructed in this age long procedure found in conflicts around the world strange forms of terror and intimacy arise particularly in the contemporary islamic cultures of chechnya albania and bosnia this book investigates the modes of desire and politics found in kidnapping in order to reveal the voices of victims and kidnappers that often remain closed up dejan lukic explores the spaces where hostages and hostage takers come into contact spaces of accident sacrifice hope and catastrophe or in other words the spaces that announce utopias bound to fail in this book the figures of the victim the terrorist the sovereign the resistance fighter and the witness among others emerge with a new face one that will contribute to our understandings of what it means to act politically and ethically today critical poetics of feminist refusals renders a vivid portrait of the intergenerational and intersectional dialogue between influential feminist writers on how to say no to the conditions of oppression exclusion and exploitation imposed by patriarchal and systemically racist capitalist societies the book provides today's readers and writers access to the powerful inventory of concepts and techniques that two generations of feminists have assembled for refusing domination and constituting fugitive forms of sociability and writing drawing on examples from feminist thinkers Audre Lorde Carla Lonzi Hélène Cixous Hortense Spillers Alexis Pauline Gumbs Anne Boyer and Simone White the book focuses on how the power dynamics of recognition tie the uses of language to the material conditions of discrimination in everyday life the project offers a collection of new interdisciplinary critical autoethnographic engagements with Hélène Cixous écriture féminine and work three steps on the ladder of writing critical autoethnography shares a reciprocal and interanimating relationship with Hélène Cixous écriture féminine feminine writing and in this collection authors explore that interanimation by explicitly engaging with three steps on the ladder of writing three steps is a poetic insightful and ultimately moving reflection on the writing process and explores three distinct areas essential for writing the school of the dead the notion that something or someone must die in order for good writing to be born the school of dreams the crucial role dreams play in literary inspiration and output and the school of roots the importance of depth in the nether realms in all aspects of writing topics covered include ways Cixous work can address the need for loss and reparation in writing critical autoethnography how Cixous writing makes our body speak through concepts of birth and the body in through and of critical autoethnography whether writing in this way recast and reform prevailing orders of domination and oppression and how Cixous writing around the ethics of loving and giving translates into response able and non-violent forms of critical autoethnography in relation to otherness and difference in this collection we invite you to let us go to the school of critical autoethnographic writing Cixous 1993 p. 3 with the work of Hélène Cixous and speak in a different way and through a different medium of academic language in an approach that reveals the tensions the paradoxes the pains and the pleasures of writing with critical autoethnography in the contemporary university
