a step by step guide to social work practice assessment planning intervention and review modern social work practice is an interactive book designed to provide readers with an opportunity to engage with key aspects of current social work practice it also provides an excellent digest of the significant literature each chapter is introduced with an activity or exercise designed to aid student learning in discrete aspects of practice building up to a complete curriculum for practice learning the book builds upon the success and style of social work practice 1993 and the new social work practice 1998 mark doel and steven m shardlow have shaped the book to take account of the national occupational standards for social work aiming to provide a creative practical and up to date resource for teaching and learning in line with current practices the routledge handbook of social work practice research is the first international handbook to focus on practice research for social work bringing together leading scholars in the field from europe the usa and the asia pacific region it provides an up to the minute overview of the latest thinking in practice research whilst also providing practical advice on how to undertake practice research in the field it is divided into five sections state of the art methodologies pedagogies applications expanding the frontiers the range of topics discussed will enhance student development as well as increase the capacity of practitioners to conduct research develop coordinating and leadership roles and liaise with multiple stakeholders who will strengthen the context base for practice research as such this handbook will be essential reading for all social work students practitioners and academics as well as those working in other health and social care settings first published in 1994 this text is designed to be used by graduate level social work students in courses on evaluation and program design over the course of 20 years and 6 editions the goals of the book have remained the same to prepare students to participate in evaluative activities within their organizations to prepare students to become critical producers and consumers of professional evaluative literature and to prepare students for more advanced evaluation courses and texts grinnell gabor and unrau aim to meet these objectives by presenting a unique approach that is realistic practical applied and user friendly while a majority of textbooks focus on program level evaluation some recent books present case level evaluation methods but rely on inferentially powerful but difficult to implement experimental baseline designs this text assumes that neither of these approaches adequately reflects the realities of the field or the needs of students and beginning practitioners instead program evaluation for social workers offers a blend of the two that demonstrates how they can complement one another the integration of case level and program level approaches provides an accessible adaptable and realistic framework for students to more easily grasp and implement in the real world
