this framework edition teacher support pack offers support and guidance this book will focus specifically on developing pedagogical skills and consider what these skills are how they develop how they impact on learning and how they differ for different ages and subjects this accessible yet authoritative book considers and encourages flexible playful and innovative practices in the teaching of writing and shows how certain practices can develop children's creative and linguistic potential and their overall skill this is a handsome second edition of a book that has remained an invaluable and comprehensive guide for practicing and trainee teachers since its publication in 1996. I hope that all practitioners who love children's language and literature will add this book to their collections of well-used professional books. Nursery World 'developing language and literacy 3-8' second edition is a comprehensive and practical introduction to teaching and learning English in the early years. The new edition has been fully updated to take account of the new requirements for teaching English in the early years including the curriculum guidance for the foundation stage English in the national curriculum and the national literacy strategy. It covers all aspects of language and literacy and draws on current thinking, research and classroom expertise in order to describe practice that is rooted in research. The book includes chapters on speaking and listening, reading resources for language and literacy, writing, spelling, handwriting and punctuation, bilingual learners, language literacy and gender, children with difficulties, involving parents and carers, assessment, planning, further reading and sources of information. Websites are given so that readers can explore aspects of English in more depth. It also includes a section on the role of the English post-holder. The book covers the English elements of the curriculum for initial teacher training, particularly those relating to pedagogical knowledge and teaching and assessment methods and so should be of particular use and interest to trainee teachers following 3-8, 5-8 or 5-11 courses.
