this book examines in depth and at length what the old testament and the new testament hold about the salvation of god's other peoples the bible repeatedly witnesses to the universal scope of the divine love for all human beings and the chances of salvation that are available to them since the israelites experienced for many centuries both at home and abroad the religion and culture of numerous other peoples the old testament texts have much to say both positively and negatively about the religious prospects and destiny of these peoples in its second half this book scrutinizes what jesus the evangelists paul and the letter to the hebrews indicate about god's loving designs for all human beings at the end the book breaks new ground by developing the universal presence of the risen jesus along with the holy spirit and his role as universal wisdom and the full teaching of the letter to the hebrews on the possibility of faith for all people some people can't see the forest for the trees they get so bogged down in details that they lose sight of what it's all about others can't see the trees for the forest they miss the wondrous details all around them so why not look instead at both the forest and the trees this commentary on paul's letter to the colossians guides you in doing just that even though we will be exploring ancient biblical cultures and learning plenty about the greek language no prior academic training is needed technical terms have been set aside instead with everyday language we will discover the big picture and revel in the fine details of this stunning letter amazed by how god is still speaking these same words today to contemporary personal and social challenges we will not then be tourists rapidly zipping through colossians as if on a monotonous interstate highway instead we will be hiking our way through this letter step by step phrase by phrase finding joy in god's truth and growing in our faith come and join the journey
