tired of the same old tourist traps whether you're a visitor or a local looking for something different let mississippi off the beaten path show you the magnolia state you never knew existed purchase stone ground cornmeal from the oldest continuously operating water mill in the united states at sciple's water mill listen to first class blues music at margaret's blue diamond lounge in clarksdale or stay in the shack up inn to get a genuine plantation experience so if you've been there done that one too many times get off the main road and venture off the beaten path the sweet potato queens are back and bawdier than ever in southern belle extraordinaire jill conner browne's ninth edition of the hysterical series having experienced pretty much all of the crappy parts of life browne feels it is her duty to render whatever assistance she can to her fellow sufferers and she does so in her own inimitable fashion her father taught her there are very few situations in life that we really and truly cannot change and it is up to us to figure out how to either make fun out of them or make fun of them and fortunately for the rest of us browne is well equipped for both including the exploits of the queen contingent and her family she delivers applicable tidbits like thinking or talking about watermelon can save any negative situation if you get drunk in scotland you can't have your cow with you when sanity and reason fail you can always cheerfully resort to ridicule denial means that every situation is perfectly perfect more fun than a cracker barrel full of monkeys fat is the new 30 will change your life or at least give you ideas for making fun of yourself winner of the 2021 eudora welty prize in contrast to other literary genres drama has received little attention in southern studies and women playwrights in general receive less recognition than their male counterparts in marginalized southern women playwrights confront race region and gender author casey kayser addresses these gaps by examining the work of southern women playwrights making the argument that representations of the american south on stage are complicated by difficulties of identity genre and region through analysis of the dramatic texts the rhetoric of reviews of productions as well as what the playwrights themselves have said about their plays and productions kayser delineates these challenges and argues that playwrights draw on various conscious strategies in response these strategies evident in the work of such playwrights as pearl cleage sandra deer lillian hellman beth henley marsha norman and shay youngblood provide them with the opportunity to lead audiences to reconsider monolithic understandings of northern and southern regions and ultimately create new visions of the south if the nobel committee offered awards in gender relations the sweet potato queens would have the prize all locked up these fine ladies have devoted an absolutely inordinate amount of time to the pursuit of love marriage and great sex and they're just bursting to share their stories now their royal ringleader bestselling author jill conner browne brings you the sweet potato queens field guide to men a hilarious and highly instructive handbook about the men we love to hate and the ones we love to love with special revelations about why he didn't call the sweetest revenge ever the downright crazy things we will do for romance plus memorable tales of queenly dating adventures the shameless lowdown on looking as young as you feel and more royal recipes that are
