The Communist Manifesto is a summary of the whole Marxist vision of history and is the foundation document of the Marxist movement. The Manifesto is a condensed account of the world view Marx and Engels had evolved during their intellectual and political involvement of the previous few years.

The classic political treatise, The Communist Manifesto, of the Communist Party by Friedrich Engels and Karl Marx. The Communist Manifesto originally. The Communist Party is an 1848 political pamphlet by German philosophers Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, commissioned by the Communist League and originally published in London in the German language as Manifest der kommunistischen Partei. Just as the revolutions of 1848 began to erupt, the Manifesto was later recognised as one of the world's most influential political manuscripts. It presents an analytical approach to the class struggle, historical and present, and the problems of capitalism and the capitalist mode of production, rather than a prediction of communism's potential future forms. The Communist Manifesto summarises Marx and Engels' theories about the nature of society and politics. In their own words, the history of all hitherto existing society is the history of class struggles. It also briefly features their ideas for how the capitalist society of the time would eventually be replaced by socialism and then finally communism.
