this publication contains the report of the independent inquiry by lord hutton into the events leading up to the death of dr david kelly the government weapons expert in july 2003 after he had been publicly named as the source of a report by andrew gilligan on bbc radio fours today programme which had alleged that the government had pressurised the joint intelligence committee to exaggerate the military threat posed by Iraq in its September 2002 dossier the question of whether intelligence about Iraq's weapons of mass destruction justified going to war falls outside the scope of the inquiry the report concludes that Dr Kelly took his own life because he felt he had been publicly disgraced after being named as the source for the BBC report but nobody was at fault in not contemplating the possibility of his suicide Dr Kelly had broken official civil service procedures in having an unauthorised meeting with Andrew Gilligan a fact that Dr Kelly later recognised due to uncertainties in Mr Gilligan's evidence and note taking and in his misuse of language it is not possible to reach a definite conclusion as to what Dr Kelly actually said however the report states its satisfaction that Dr Kelly did not say that the government had insisted in the insertion of the 45 minute claim probably knowing it to be wrong therefore the allegation is judged to have been unfounded the BBC editorial system is found to have been defective in its failure to properly check the details of the allegations made by Andrew Gilligan before their broadcast and the BBC governors and management system was at fault by failing to fully investigate complaints made by Alastair Campbell the government is cleared of any dishonourable or underhand conduct in the public naming of Dr Kelly Downing Street was entitled to suggest changes to the September dossier and it was appropriate for John Scarlett head of the joint intelligence committee to take account of these there was no covert strategy by the Ministry of Defence to leak his name although they were at fault for failing to give Dr Kelly sufficient notice that his name had been made public indexes popular fiction series for K-6 readers with groupings based on thematic consistent setting or consistent characters annotated entries are arranged alphabetically by series name and include author publisher date grade level genre and a list of individual titles in the series volume is indexed by author title and subject genre and includes appendixes suggesting books for boys girls and reluctant ESL readers the tumultuous years of the French Revolution left France's prestigious decorative arts industries poised on the brink of ruin it was not until after the fall of the monarchy and the ascendancy of the Consulate and Empire under Napoleon that they began to recover so that by the middle of the nineteenth century they stood at the pinnacle of their achievement this book is the first in-depth study of the renowned porcelain works at Sèvres during its virtual rebirth under the 47-year direction of the scientist teacher and administrator Alexandre Brongniart some 110 working drawings from the Sèvres archive are reproduced here for the first time in color they celebrate the high skill of the artists whose work often documented contemporary events in France there are table services in the Egyptian and Etruscan taste as well as individual pieces that recall Napoleonic military campaigns there are also exquisite neoclassical decorations using motifs such as birds butterflies and insects that reflect the century's early fascination with the natural sciences the repertoire of nineteenth-century eclecticism is evident in the output of Sèvres from the revival of Gothic and Renaissance motifs to the outburst of naturalism eleven essays by leading authorities assess this dynamic period the material queer is an innovative anthology that offers a materialist understanding of marginal sexualities by accounting for the full range of classic and contemporary views it breaks with the classic tradition in lesbian and gay studies and also with ludic post modern theory by insisting on the embeddedness of gender and sexuality in the social division of labor
