hardly any christian doctrine is discussed so much today as that of holy scripture innumerable books are published about it and official discussions in many churches are concerned with it karl barth s doctrine plays a great part whether positively or negatively in all of these discussions and reports his stature is so great that no one can deal with the problem of holy scripture without considering barth s view and defining his own position over against it indeed many aspects of barth s view have come to be generally accepted as beyond criticism such uncritical acceptance is itself a good reason to devote a special study to barth s doctrine of holy scripture because no matter how we assess it the church dogmatics of karl barth is one of the greatest forces in the modern theological world in its vastness and variety its comprehensiveness and detail it constitutes a challenge to every school nor is it to be met by caricature or sweeping generalization the individual themes demand searching analysis and appraisal at the exegetical historical and dogmatic levels at which barth himself develops them only on the basis of detailed treatment can there be ultimate understanding and assessment of the whole it is because dr runia tackles this preliminary problem that his present work is so significant he does not add to the list of general books choosing a critical and sensitive area he devotes himself to the concentrated task of presenting the barthian teaching on inspiration in its normative form in the course of his analysis he examines the proposed biblical basis of barth s statement and brings it into lively interaction with the reformation tradition which barth believes that he represents by means of a thorough inquiry into the single point dr runia thus gives us a far more informative stimulating and authoritative criticism that is possible in more comprehensive studies the result is a valuable work which deserves to be widely studied and which should serve as a model for similar investigations into the many detailed themes of the dogmatics it is characterized by an honesty and relevance which gives it more than a narrowly academic interest the real problems are faced and it is candidly the most orthodox of statements yet the great verities of the traditional doctrine emerge the clearer and stronger for this powerful discussion and in such a way that they may again make their salutary impact on a wider theological front no issue now occupies contemporary evangelicals more than the role of culture in biblical interpretation in culture and biblical hermeneutics the author not only analyzes the current debate but also makes a significant contribution to it this volume grapples with what the author calls the challenge that historical and cultural relativism poses to the hermeneutical process when applied to the authoritative scripture he accomplishes his goal admirably by exploring both the origin and the current state of biblical hermeneutics and by developing a biblical theology of hermeneutics and culture in a society saturated by the doctrine of tolerance and an air of post modernism one might wonder about the role and significance of the once almighty scripture despite what some would consider a time of revival in the church confidence in the scripture is consistently being undermined by cynical attitudes and critical thinking saucy s commentary is relevant for the times and speaks to the questioning heart and mind he confirms not only our need for scripture but also its authority its inerrancy and its impact public speaking is one of the most important task and challenging to the human beings it is imperative for all the committed christians to learn learn and live with the biblical truths as such the knowledge and application of scripture is an utmost necessity to be grounded upon the word of god the necessity of scripture means that the bible is necessary for knowing the gospel for maintaining spiritual and moral life and for knowing god s will but is not necessary for knowing that god exists or for knowing something about god s character and moral law basis of preaching biblical message preach the word is for the glory of god the building up of the church and society and the spreading of the gospel to the ends of the earth that is to all the creation biblical preaching is centered around and takes its content from the inerrant word of god true biblical preaching aims at life change biblical preaching also comes through the personality of the preacher some communicators or preachers are encouragers some are confrontational some are humour while others use sound logic and well reasoned content it is not good to fall into the trap of trying to mimic your favourite preacher instead learn from them and develop your own style as a good communicator rev dr koningthung ngoru moyon presents biblical preaching in his book basis of preaching biblical message preach the word is both an art and a science it is a science in the sense that there are rules and principles of communication that we are to follow it is an art in that each person brings his own unique personality and style to the preaching experience preaching is truth through personality both are necessary however the very important and foremost focus in the book is that biblical preaching is empowered by the work of the holy spirit is focus in the book vol 8 includes new testament supplement seventh in the building books series of young adult curriculum theme is resisting cultic influences worship in spirit and in truth has to be based on god s word that regulates us on how we must worship him the foundation of the regulative principle of worship is found in the first two commandments self styled worship is unacceptable to god regardless of the good intentions worship based on the traditions of men which were inspired by satan are used as a sword and a shield against the truth in doing this they successfully execute that very purpose which satan intends them to that of a false and perverse worship shielded by obstinacy a top priority in choosing a church to become a member should be based on no other criteria than that of a church that has its form of worship based on biblical principals
