from the internationally bestselling author of Sarah comes the riveting story of the remarkable woman who walked beside Moses although she is a Cushite by birth one of the people of the lands to the south. Zipporah grew up as the beloved daughter of Jethro high priest and sage of the Midianites but the color of Zipporah's skin sets her apart making her an outsider to the men of her adopted tribe who do not want her as a wife. Then one day while drawing water from a well she meets a handsome young stranger like her he is an outsider a Hebrew raised in the house of the Egyptian Pharaoh. Moses is a fugitive forced to flee his homeland. Zipporah realizes that this man will be the husband and partner she never thought she would have. Moses wants nothing more than a peaceful life with the Midianites but Zipporah won't let Moses forget his past or turn away from his true destiny. She refuses to marry him until he returns to Egypt to free his people. When God reveals himself to Moses in a burning bush his words echo Zipporah's and Moses returns to Egypt with his passionate and generous wife by his side. A woman ahead of her time Zipporah leaps from the pages of this remarkable novel bold independent and a true survivor she is a captivating heroine and her world of deserts temples and ancient wonders is a fitting backdrop to an epic tale.

In this book we will discover how Zipporah Moses's wife saved Moses's life from a certain death and ensured he carried out the commission given him by God. Next to Mary Jesus's mother Zipporah was arguably one of the most important women in the Bible as will be revealed in chapter 2. Bizarre is typical of how biblical scholars describe the tale of Zipporah and her husband Moses especially the section in which God planned to kill Moses and Zipporah uses a blood ritual to successfully defend her husband and son for mystery mayhem and sheer baffling weirdness. Nothing else in the Bible quite compares with the story of Zipporah and the bridegroom of blood.

In the time of the Pharaoh a tiny infant is rescued from the banks of the Red Sea. She is named Zipporah the little bird although she is a Cushite by birth one of the black people of the lands to the south. She is taken in by Jethro high priest and sage of the Midianites. Jethro adores his adopted daughter but the blackness of Zipporah's skin sets her apart. She will be an outsider and the men of her adopted tribe will not want her as a wife. But when she becomes a young woman Zipporah's destiny changes forever. While drawing water at a well one day she meets a handsome young man a stranger like her he is an outsider a foreigner his name is Moses. Zipporah knows almost immediately that this man will be the husband she never thought she would have although he is the love of her life and the father of her children. Zipporah won't marry Moses until he agrees to return to Egypt to confront Pharaoh and free his people. When God reveals himself to Moses in the burning bush his words echo Zipporah's and Moses returns to Egypt with Zipporah by his side.
